ASSOCIATION HEADQUARTERS CLIENT PARTNERS EARN ACCLAIM FOR ASSOCIATION ACHIEVEMENTS

MT. LAUREL, NJ, January 4, 2006 – Association Headquarters, Inc. (AH), a leading association management company, is proud to announce the National Association of Professional Pet Sitters (NAPPS), Wound, Ostomy, and Continence Nurses Society (WOCN), and American Society of Transplantation (AST) –all client partners of AH–were honored for their outstanding work.

Both NAPPS and WOCN were awarded a 2005 Positive Impact Award, presented by the New Jersey Society of Association Executives (NJSAE). NJSAE's Positive Impact Awards recognize projects with the potential to achieve a significant positive impact for an association. NAPPS was recognized for the creation of the Disaster Preparedness Plans for Pet Sitters and Pet Owners, developed by the newly formed Disaster Preparedness Committee, while WOCN earned acclaim for the WOCN Professional Practice Manual. The awards were presented at the NJSAE/DVSAE Conference and Exhibition, held last month at the Tropicana Hotel in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Additionally, NAPPS and AST won awards in the 2005 Association TRENDS all-media contest. Association TRENDS is a 33-year old, weekly, subscription publication for association executives and the suppliers who serve them. This contest recognizes the best in publications, CDs, posters, Web sites and other media offerings in the association community. NAPPS was awarded Gold in the Convention Registration Package category for its "2006 Annual Conference and Small Business Forum" brochure and AST took Silver for the "AST Primary Care Symposium" brochure.

"Congratulations to our client partners for their outstanding accomplishments," remarked Bill MacMillan, Association Headquarters CEO. "It is a privilege to work with these organizations and the dedicated members who make such achievements possible."
