Association Headquarters, Inc. Named One of the Best Places to Work in Philadelphia Region

MOUNT LAUREL, N.J. – Association Headquarters, Inc., a leading association management company, has been named one of the Best Places to Work in the Philadelphia region by the Philadelphia Business Journal. This award evaluates companies based on employee satisfaction, company benefits, and unique perks offered to employees.

Association Headquarters, Inc. (AH), was ranked third place in the large company category (101 – 1,000 employees) among many prominent companies, including: Brown’s Super Stores, Comcast Corporation, and Main Line Health.

As described by the Philadelphia Business Journal, some of the notable perks and benefits at AH which contributed to its ranking as one of the Best Places to Work in Philadelphia include:

- Flex time schedules
- Early-out Fridays from Memorial Day to Labor Day
- Paid time off for community service as well as organ donation
- Health club membership reimbursement

“Of all of the awards and recognition that we have received over the years, we value this as the highest, since it was awarded based upon our staff’s feelings about the company,” said Robert Waller, Jr., CAE, President and Chief Operating Officer. “What better way to reflect the value we place on our employees and culture than to be recognized in this way. The true recipients of our culture and staff commitment are our client partners.”

This is the second time AH is named one of the 50 best places to work in the region. AH received this honor in 2006, following the 2004 ranking among Philadelphia 100® fastest growing companies as determined by the University of Pennsylvania Wharton School and the Philadelphia Business Journal.
